It Is Said That He Is Not Confident of the Result In New York.

FEARFUL OF A DIVISION. ALSO ON THE LIQUOR HABIT

Senator Calls and Assures Him, but He Is Said to Expect a Van Wyck Victory.

THINKS LEGISLATURE IS SAFE. MANY FEDERATION BENEFITS.

A Member of His Cabinet Predicts Triumph in the West, but Regards This State as Doubtful.

Washington, Nov. 4.—Senator Platt tore himself away from New York politics long enough to make one of his periodical visits to Washington today.

He had two particular objects in view, one of which was to make a final appeal to the President for clemency in the court-martial case of Captain Carter, and the other to arrange for his Toga bank to resume business.

He attended to the former business first, and while with the President, incidentally talked of New York politics. Senator Platt told President McKinley that the Republicans are going to carry New York next week.

"You need have no uneasiness," said he, "we are going to win and by a safe majority."

"Colonel Roosevelt will be the next Governor of New York," he continued. "He is meeting with enthusiasm wherever he goes and he is arousing the voters. The extent of the silent vote will be something surprising, and will set the country on fire."

He said on his way to the Treasury a newspaper man had the temerity to suggest to Senator Platt that his loyalty to Roosevelt had been questioned.

"And so has the loyalty of the President to Roosevelt been questioned," he quickly answered the Senator, "but I have never doubted it."

The President and his cabinet officers, having little business of importance today, spent most of their time discussing the political situation, particularly as it related to the probable complexion of the next House of Representatives.

The situation in New York State, it is said, gives the President uneasiness. The President repeated to his cabinet what Senator Platt had told him of the outlook, but despite the confident assurances of the New York Senator it was made evident that the Washington Administration views the election in that State with apprehension.

The President's own opinion, as expressed to members of the cabinet today, is, according to reports, that the result there will be a division of honors. President McKinley, it is said, believes that Van Wyck will be elected Governor of New York State, but that the Legislature will remain Republican.

Whether he read this result from the lines of Senator Platt's statement to him or not cannot be told.

One of the members of the cabinet, who, doubtless, to some extent at least, reflected the President's views, said to the Journal today:

"The West is our stronghold. The people of the States beyond the Mississippi are enthusiastically rallying to the support of the Administration, and the Republicans will make heavy gains there. In the West only are national issues being fought out in this campaign. In New York you have the canals and the judiciary to fight over."

I believe that we are going to control the House by a good working majority. In New York State I expect to see Van Wyck elected. Roosevelt's making for himself an "independent" campaign, and while he would naturally attract the young men, he does not seem to be the choice of the sober, sensible, more conservative citizens."

FIVE BANK BOOKS ON DROWNED MAN

Unidentified Body Found at South Beach May Be That of George Weiss.

The body of an unknown man, a German, about sixty years old, was found on the beach at South Beach, Staten Island, yesterday. In his pockets were found five bank books. All were made out in the name of George Weiss, showing deposits of $3,854.48 in the Institution for the Savings of the Merchants' Bank, the Bank of America, the Commercial Union Bank, the Germania Savings Bank, and the New York State Bank. There was found $3.56 in small change.

Police, who are investigating the case, think it is one of suicide. The body had been in the water but a few hours.

At the Institution for the Savings of the Merchants' Bank, at 20 Union Square, it was said that a George Weiss opened an account there in 1933. At that time he was about sixty years old. He was said to be a German and a shoemaker. He was unmarried and had no relatives.

COMMITTEE NAMED TO AID THE TAILORS.

Rich Women Selected to Plan for a Co-operative Shop in This City.

Contrary to expectations, the Consumers' League, which met yesterday afternoon at No. 103 East Twenty-first street, favored the co-operative factory plan for the locked out tailors.

At a meeting of the League yesterday afternoon, ten days ago, the representative of the Consumers' League said the women in the Consumers' League whom she had seen on the picket line were very cooperative.

The League appointed a committee consisting of Miss Ellen Phelps-Stokes, Mrs. Frederick Nathaniel Smith, Mrs. Mary Safford and Miss Louise Caldwell to act in conjunction with committees of the Tailors' Reform Club and the Church Association.

ELDORADO CASINO A HEAP OF ASHES.

The Old Resort Burned to the Ground in an Early Morning Blaze.

All that was left was the old Eldorado Casino, in Weehawken, N. J., was consumed by fire yesterday. The building burned was the dining-room of the old Casino. For some years past it had been leased by Peter Ciancimino, who conducted it as a saloon and dance hall. The police firemen were unable to cope with the blaze.

Ciancimino was not home at the time, but his wife and five children were asleep in the part of the building used as a residence by them. Ciancimino and his children escaped in their night clothing. The damage amounts to about $15,000. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Rich Water Colors to Be Seen.

A group view of the ninth annual exhibition of the New York Water Color Club was given at the galleries of the American Fine Arts Society yesterday.

MANY FEDERATION BENEFITS.

Discussion in Which Press Women Figure; Then Election of Mrs. William Tod Helmuth as President.

Resolutions and greetings, thanks and congratulations, applause for election returns, praise for the benefits of the confederation of Women's Clubs marked the last day of its proceedings.

There were calls for Mrs. Alden, of the Press Committee, there were motions for the endorsement of purity in literature, and there was a resolution made to undertake the work of establishing a State training school for girls.

Mrs. William Tod Helmuth was elected president of the State Federation of Women's Clubs with 204 votes out of 211. The rest of the ticket was as follows: For vice-presidents, Mrs. Cornelia Zabriske and Mrs. Harry Hastings; for recording secretary, Mrs. Frank B. Church; for corresponding secretary, Miss Anne Rhodes; and for treasurer, Mrs. Milton Northrup.

The executive board is selected from Elton, Warsaw, Syracuse, Utica, Rochester and Buffalo.

On a motion from the platform the vote for president was finally made a unanimous one. In the midst of universal enthusiasm it was proposed that the president who, for the next two years, will preside over the New York State Federation should be strung with club pins from her head to her feet.

Mrs. Helmuth stammered prettily over her speech of thanks and finally acknowledged "when your heart is touched sometimes you lose your head."

From the press to the consideration of the Federation's benefit the convention traveled in the hours of yesterday. The State Federation was pledged in the only available drink, a glass of water, to be cherished and defended to the last drop.

It was shown that if woman's voice was not discordant it was because it was used to straighten wrongs. It was acknowledged that confessions were not all attended for serious study, but sometimes for fun. It was decided that exclusiveness was bad and only another name for selfishness.

And, finally, the confederation, this confederation which has been marked all through by peace and good will, was pointed to as a living example that women can work together.

"The Press and Woman's Influence." It was the theme of the morning session. Mrs. Cynthia Westover Alden spoke eloquently and with brevity for conciseness. "Find out the facts," she said, "and then speak."

She said that the note of war sounded in the next report. "The Ethical, Commercial and Womanly Side of Peace Between Nations," she said, "is the only side that counts."

The president kept her hand on the gavel and her ears alert for the first discordant note. It came from the floor when the recent war was called unworthy and the next moment eloquently, burningly pronounced noble in the extreme. Women sprang up to defend every word.

The hall, Mrs. Delmuth was in despair. She no longer recognized one another called for the floor. "Finally she saw safety in yielding to the chairman of the discussion with the recommendation to close. Tactfully and briefly she recognized both sides of the question."

With a smile, "that this assembly has so expressed itself with no uncertain sound." The last day of the confederation of the Federation closed with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner," and the last view of its women showed them grasping the hand of the president and showering her with pins emblematic of club enthusiasm.

TO AMERICA BY WAY OF A ROPE.

Chinese Sailor Slides Down One and Swims for the Land of Liberty.

A Chinaman who tried to get into this free country by way of a rope was caught early yesterday morning after swimming 150 yards in American waters. He is Quo Lung, of Peking.

The Chinaman belongs to the Sikh, a vessel just from China, now lying at the foot of Market street. Every time a vessel comes from the Orient, the Customs inspectors are detailed to watch her, so that the Chinaman aboard may not land. Inspector E. F. Munson was watching yesterday morning when he saw a rope thrown over the side of the vessel. But the man who let it down saw the inspector, and he went to the water. He slid down the rope into the water. The inspector started after him as he swam down the river to a brick bridge. The Chinaman climbed aboard and hid among the bricks. Watson found him after an hour's search.

Quo Lung was returned before United States Commissioner Shields and held in $500 bail for examination.

Theatrical Chat.

Olga Netherland and her company sail from Southampton today on the St. Louis for this city. Mr. Richard Mansfield announces that the only extra matinee he will appear in will be on Sunday afternoon. He wants time to vote on election day.

Jerome H. Eddy, one of the authors of "The Yellow Jacket," is playing Miss Paula Edwards' part in "The Runaway Girl" at Daly's. Miss Edwards seriously burned her left eye with red-hot tongs in her dressing room at the theatre the other night, and is now under a physician's care.

General services over the body of Harry Rockwood Hewitt were held last night at the St. Remond. The interment will occur today in Green-Wood Cemetery.

W. H. Post has been engaged by W. M. Wilkins to read for a stranger in "Strange Land" at the Lyceum Theatre in Newbury, N. Y., on November 15.

Some Prominent Women's Club Members.

The Confederation of Women's Clubs held its last session yesterday, electing Mrs. William Tod Helmuth president. Pledges of benefits were discussed, and there was much excitement over different views of the war, but the president was equal to the emergency and the members parted friends.
